How many sessions do I have with a counselor?

The number of counseling sessions depends on your employer. No matter how many sessions you have, our goal is to help you problem-solve within the number of sessions allowed by your EAP benefit. If your situation requires additional services, our counselors will quickly and efficiently help you access your mental health benefits, community resources, self-help groups or other resources.

What does it cost?

Your employer has pre-paid for this benefit, so it is free to you and your immediate family members. No insurance or co-payment is required.

Can my family members use the EAP?

Yes. Any member of your household – your spouse, children, parents or members of your immediate family living with you – has access to the EAP.

Who are the EAP Counselors?

All our counselors are licensed, certified behavioral health professionals with masters level education and training. They are experts in helping people resolve issues that can affect their personal health and well-being as well as that of their family members. For more information about our counselors, please visit www.solutionsbiz.com.

Are these services confidential?

All EAP services are completely confidential. Your written permission is required to authorize the release of your personal information. The only exceptions are if your situation poses the risk of danger to yourself, to others, a child or elder, or involves a court order.

Is this benefit available to me after I leave the company?

You and your family members may access the EAP for six months following termination. If initial access takes place during this six-month period, you and/or your family member will have one year from the date of your first visit to complete all sessions.
