Get Ready for a Good Night's Sleep

Leonardo da Vinci believed “a well spent day brings happy sleep.” If happy sleep eludes you, here are some ways to set yourself up for better slumber:

- Go to bed and wake up at the same time each day
- Avoid caffeinated drinks five hours before you sleep
- Exercise earlier in the day rather than later
- Keep laptops, TVs and phones out of the bedroom
- Set your bedroom temp on the cool side
- Invest in a comfortable, supportive mattress
- Take a warm shower or bath to unwind

Good sleep habits will help you get the rest you need.
